6. Terms and Conditions of Booking

Agreement

The completion and signing of this Booking Form forms an agreement that the student will follow and adhere to all the terms and conditions it contains.

Behaviour

If the student behaves in any way deemed unacceptable by the Course Manager, Windermere Holiday Schools reserves the right to send the student home immediately, with no refund of fees. In respect to damages, caused deliberately or as a result of inappropriate behaviour, Windermere Holiday Schools will recover costs from the parents or guardians of the child or children involved.

Insurance

Except where required by the terms of its own insurance cover, Windermere Holiday Schools does not accept liability for damages, injuries, illnesses or other claims related to students unless such liability is legally imposed.

Medical

We accept students only on the understanding that they are in good health. The Medical and Dietary information allows you to give us an insight in to your child's health and dietary needs, but we can take no responsibility for any aspects not included. Please give a full account in writing if there are any additional concerns or matters about which we need to know.

Changes to the programme

The course has been planned and published in good faith. Windermere Holiday Schools reserves the right to make any changes to the programme or cancel the course if it is deemed necessary.

Course cancellation

To cancel a student's place, Windermere Holiday Schools must receive written confirmation. This will take effect from the date the letter is received. There will be a £35 administration fee if the course is cancelled 15 to 60 days prior to the course commencing. This charge will increase to 50% of course fees if cancellation is within 14 days of the start date.

Adverse weather

In the event of adverse weather (strong winds, rough water or no wind) Windermere Holiday Schools reserves the right to alter from the watersports scheme syllabus to appropriate indoor activities. These will aim to relate to watersports, however, where this is not possible, other team work, communication and skills development activities will take place.

7. Agreement

It is important that the Terms and Conditions have been read and understood before signing below.

- I confirm that all the information contained within sections 1 – 5 is correct.
- I confirm that I accept the terms and conditions of booking my son/daughter.
