Complaints and Appeals Procedure

If a candidate (or parent/carer) has a general concern or complaint about the centre's delivery or administration of a qualification, Windermere School encourages an informal resolution in the first instance. This can be undertaken by • Raising the complaint either in person, or by telephone or in writing.

If a concern or complaint fails to be resolved informally, the candidate (or parent/carer) is then at liberty to make a formal complaint.

How to make a formal complaint

All documentation relating to the submission of a formal complaint is available from, and should be returned to • Michael Rayner. Formal complaints will be logged and acknowledged within • 7 Calendar days.

To make a formal complaint, candidates (or parents/carers) must • complete and return a complaint/appeals form.

How a formal complaint is investigated

- The Head of Centre will further investigate or appoint a member of the senior leadership team (who is not involved in the grounds of the complaint or has a personal interest in the outcome) to investigate the complaint and report on the findings and conclusion.

The findings and conclusion of any investigation will be provided to the complainant within • Two working weeks.

Appeals

Following the outcome, if the complainant remains dissatisfied and believes there are clear grounds, an appeal can be submitted.

To submit an appeal, candidates (or parents/carers) must • Complete and return an Appeals form.

Appeals will be logged and acknowledged within • 7 Calendar days upon receipt of original decision .

The appeal will be referred to • Chair of Governors (or a special committee of the Governors) .

It will be the responsibility of • The Chair of Governors (or special committee) will inform the appellant in due course to inform the appellant of the final conclusion.
